

IMAGE Pacific Communications Inc. Submission Guidelines

IMAGE has a formal submission process that must be completed before we can look at any materials.

Types of Productions: We are interested in the following types of programming: lifestyle, documentary, reality, travel, and sports.

We do not accept the following types of programming: feature films, scripted drama, pornography, animation and children's programming.

Some Guidelines to consider when submitting a project:

Overview of the Project: Describe the program in its simplest terms

Concept: The underlying theme of the program and its goals

Demographic: Who is the target audience?

Specifics of the Program: Length? Genre? Talent attached?

Why?: Why should this program be on television? What is unique about it?

The Team: Who is involved with the program already? What is the team's history/background?

Broadcasters/Distributors: Are there any commitments/interest? Any agreements?

Budget/ Timelines: Is there a budget? If not, is there an estimate of production costs? Is there a particular production timeline to the program?

How?: How would you like to see Image Pacific Communications involved in the program?

Contact Information: Address, phone number and email of contact person for the program